

GridTracker v1.22.1226 An Amateur Radio Companion

December 26th, 2022

General Information

As 2022 comes to a close, we wish to thank everyone for supporting GridTracker! Your donations have helped us support real-time spotting, offline messaging, downloads, all the callsign databases, and more! Stay tuned as always for improved features and bug fixes (hopefully we're getting a handle on them now!) as well as new and exciting features that you didn't know you wanted!

Changelog

- Fixed lightning strikes not showing on map
- · Fixed distance in status panel
- Fixed chat window text entry
- · Fixed Logbook of The World loading
- No longer clear data on new versions
- More code clean up
